4)

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document, written on aged, yellowed paper. The text is arranged in several lines across the page. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of 18th or 19th-century handwriting. The paper shows signs of wear, including two prominent dark circular holes and some staining.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a signature or name, located at the top right of the page.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a signature or name, located at the bottom right of the page.

[illegible]

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. It appears to be a continuous narrative or record, possibly related to a legal or administrative matter, given the use of terms like "procurator" and "procurator's office". The script is dense and fills most of the page.
